

Amoonguna Arts Centre

Lynette Ellis

Born	1970
Language Group	Central Arrernte and Walpiri
Skin	Pengarte
Region	Central Arrernte

Background

Lynette was born in Alice Springs and spent her early life at Amoonguna and Santa Teresa.

She started painting with Keringke Arts at Santa Teresa (Ltyentye Apurte) in 1989, when the new art centre was built. Whilst at Keringke Arts Lynette mainly painted on canvas and produced lino cut prints.

Lynette lived at Ali Curung for 12 years, working at the local school. During this time she collaborated with the senior girls on a print making exhibition "Paw Prints", as well as producing other artworks and printed cards.